

THE STUDENT PROMISE

The background is a solid blue color. On the left and right sides, there are large, white, semi-circular shapes with a pattern of small blue dots. These shapes are partially cut off by the edges of the frame. In the center, the words "INTERNATIONAL" and "WEBINAR" are written in a bold, white, sans-serif font, stacked vertically.

INTERNATIONAL WEBINAR

TOPIC

WHO IS IN CONTROL
OF YOUR CAREER?

- To inform students that acquiring a job is not easy, let alone nailing the interview
- To provide insights into the necessary competencies required for a successful interview
- To deep dive into correlation between one's multi-faceted personality and a well-fitting organization
- To present an international audience of students and faculties, and offer a global platform for networking
- To inform students of the importance of career counsellors and the support they can provide

GOAL

SPEAKERS

Caspar Verhees

DISC consultant (Feedback Consulting)

Caspar is an internationally certified assessor, trainer and coach, as well as DISC consultant. His passion is to help people, teams and organizations get the best out of themselves. He employs a concrete approach based on years of firsthand experience to achieve this.

He has a track record of making an agile work approach functional, through executive coaching and performance management at esteemed global companies such as ING, ASML, Refresco and Eneco. He believes that getting the right people in the right place within an organization can make all the difference. It's for this reason that Caspar and his team put such a strong focus on the factors that determine one's personality, and how these can best be leveraged for maximum job success and satisfaction.

Marleen van Elsäcker
